

Jane A. Rumora, CPA

Director, GBQ Physician Practice Group, LLC
jrumora@gbq.com

Jane graduated from Franklin University in Columbus, Ohio with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration majoring in Accounting. Jane is originally from southeastern Ohio and joined GBQ in 1984.

Jane is currently a Director in the Physician Practice Group at GBQ. Jane services a wide variety of specialty physicians in the areas of accounting, tax planning and compliance, and qualified retirement plan design and administration. For the last several years Jane has maintained a focus on physician practices of all sizes assisting them in financial statement design, project analysis and other small business related issues.

Jane has served clients in a wide variety of industries, including personal service organizations and high net-worth individuals. She has considerable experience in income and estate planning, as well as in the qualified retirement plan area. She has worked with many family-owned businesses, providing them with a variety of tax planning and compliance services.

Jane is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants, Mid-Ohio Medical Group Management Association and the National CPA Health Care Advisors Association.