Paul is a native of Chicago. He began his career in public accounting with GBQ in 1979, having first graduated from the University of Evansville (Indiana). Paul became a partner of GBQ in 1990. Paul has a diverse background that includes significant experience with utilities, non-profit, distribution, manufacturing, construction, and professional services clients. His role includes serving as the lead partner or concurring reviewer on assurance engagements as well as consulting with clients on a wide range of issues including internal control studies, budgeting, profitability and operational reviews, debt compliance, equity and debt financing, information technology, working capital management, succession planning and plant and equipment acquisition planning. Paul is a senior member of GBQ's leadership team and is involved in all major decisions regarding client acceptance, staffing, independence, quality control and training.

As Director of GBQ's assurance practice he is responsible for the maintenance of the firm's quality control standards and interpreting current accounting and auditing pronouncements. Paul also conducts external peer review services of other public accounting firms. In 2009, Paul celebrated his 30-year service anniversary with GBQ Partners.

In addition, he is active in several community organizations, including serving previously as President of the Board of Directors of the Columbus Speech and Hearing Center, Treasurer of Columbus Sister Cities, Inc., Chairman of the Board and Treasurer of First Community Church, Chairman of the Board of Directors of First Community Village, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Rosemont Center and a past member of the Columbus Rotary. Currently, Paul is a member of The Columbus Club.

Paul is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants.
